

REPRESENTATIVE FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Jeremy Berland

Jeremy Berland is the Deputy Representative and Associate Deputy of Monitoring, Research, Evaluation and Audit. He joined the Representative's office in December 2008.

He leads the development and implementation of a province-wide performance monitoring, research and evaluation strategy on B.C. child and youth serving systems.

Mr. Berland brings an outstanding record of service to children, including former positions as MCFD's Provincial Director of Child Welfare and ADM and Executive Director – Services to Aboriginal Children and Families.

He was an organizer of the 2006 World Forum on children hosted in B.C. and was most recently an Adjunct Assistant Professor at the University of Victoria School of Child and Youth Care. He has delivered guest lectures at universities and colleges across B.C. and at conferences of the Child Welfare League of America, the American Humane Association and the International Forum for Child Welfare.

Mr. Berland's expertise and commitment to teamwork is impressive and he has a profound and heartfelt dedication to improving the lives of children and youth.
