

REPRESENTATIVE FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Marg LeGuilloux

Marg LeGuilloux is the Director of Communications for the Representative for Children and Youth. She has been with the RCY office since it opened in April 2007. As Director, she is responsible for the leadership and management of the RCY's Communications functions, with an emphasis on raising awareness of the office's mission and impact, outreach to the public and stakeholders, and enhancing the effectiveness of its advocacy and research functions. Her responsibilities include communications strategy, media and stakeholder relations, event coordination, websites, and publications development and design.

Marg is a veteran of B.C. journalism and public relations. Previously, she worked for 16 years as a communications consultant in the public and private sectors in B.C. and Alberta including, in 2006, the honour of being the Communications Director for the Hon. Ted Hughes on the BC Children and Youth Review. Prior to her career in consulting, Marg was an award-winning print journalist, covering politics, courts and general news for seven years in B.C. and Alberta. Marg and her spouse live in Victoria, B.C.
